

LOCAL MATTERS

ADVERTISE IN YOUR COUNTY PAPER.
Clove is in bloom.
We have had a fine rain.
We hear of some rust in wheat.
Spring has opened at last in full blast.
Are the Democrats of the county reorganizing their clubs?
Oats are "heading out." Hurrah for the red oats!
Nothing affords so much pleasure as reading your county newspaper.
Pleasant approaches and as this is leap year we suppose the boys are waiting for the girls to get them up.
The young men's prayer meeting will be held in the Presbyterian Church on next Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock.
Mr. D. A. Smith, of the Courier, is off on the excursion to Charleston this week. We trust his trip may be pleasant and that he will return refreshed and invigorated.
We regret to learn that Judge Wickliffe, our efficient School Commissioner, is seriously ill with pneumonia. He has been sick for more than a week, and is not improving. He has the sympathy of his many friends in his hours of misfortune.
Dr. Moorman, of the Air Line Railway, was in town on Monday last. A number of our citizens registered their lands with him to be sold on commission. The Doctor will make us another visit for this purpose of which due notice will be given. Meantime, Captain Sligh at the post office will register for him in his absence.
No language can express the power, beauty, heroism and majesty of a mother's love. It shrinks not when men cower, and grows stronger when men faint, and over the wastes of worldly fortune sends the radiance of its quenchless fidelity like a star in heaven.
Dr. Lander, of Williamston, S. C., under date of April 14th writes us as follows: "I most ardently thank your community for the loan of your Dr. Riley, who delivered for us on last Friday a most excellent address on education on the occasion of the graduation of one of our pupils."
Where is the Walhalla Band? We don't see why our town should not have a good band of music as well as other towns. Our boys certainly possess the musical talent, and they should get together again and practice before the picnic season and campaign open.
Evans Pierson, a young white man, was struck on the side of the head with a stone by Frank Whitner, colored, on last Saturday afternoon, and had his jaw badly cut. Whitner escaped the town authorities by taking log bail, and has not been heard of since.
Norman's Nickel Cologne. Delicate, fragrant and lasting. For sale by nearly all the merchants in Walhalla, Seneca City and Westminster. Be sure, and call for no other kind. Specially recommended as a disinfectant and very serviceable in HEADACHE.
Thanks are returned to President Melchers of the Columbia German Rifle Club for a complimentary ticket to the annual Schuetzenfest on the 26th, 27th and 28th instants.
A sweet and calm serenity
Comes o'er the souls of those
Who carry full receipted bills
For their new suits of clothes.
Rev. A. W. Moore will preach in the Methodist Church, Walhalla, Sunday, 25th instant, at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Subject in the morning: "The collision of Jesus of Nazareth with the religious authorities, especially with the Sadducean element." Subject in the evening: "The collision of Jesus of Nazareth with the political authorities, Pilate and Herod." Lecture Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock: "The confession of Christ by acts of self denial and cross bearing." The sermons in the morning and evening are a continuation of the series of sermons now being delivered on "The Christ."
We were delightedly surprised, on Friday evening to meet our old and familiar friend, R. C. Davis, A. B. M. D., son of Rev. T. E. Davis, of Seneca City, and brother of Rev. E. P. Davis, of Abbeville. Dr. Davis graduated a few weeks since with the highest honors conferred by the State Medical University of New York. His high class standing, gentlemanly deportment, and thorough literary attainments gained for him the compliment of being appointed valedictorian, by the faculty of the University, from a class consisting of two hundred graduating students. The old Palmetto State is proud to see her sons thus bearing off the honors. We hope that she will maintain the noble reputation she has successfully won among the New Englanders. The young Dr. expects at an early day to locate permanently in the city of Charlotte, N. C., for the practice of his profession. We hope that joy and peace will attend him and that his labors in his adopted home will be crowned with abundant success, thereby reflecting honor and credit on his Alma Mater and proving himself to be a blessing to his country and to his God.

Townville Correspondence.
April 19.
The recent frosts killed nearly all the fruit.
Cotton planting is fully on hand just now and the most of the farmers will finish this week.
Vegetable gardens are backward—some are planting a fresh.
The Presbyterian Sunday School has been reorganized with Messrs. D. P. Verner and F. L. Stittin Superintendent and Vice-Superintendent respectively.
The May party recently alluded to will occur at the academy at this place at 7 o'clock P. M., Friday of the proximo. The invitation to everybody to be present is renewed. A bountiful and elegant supper will be served immediately afterwards and a very moderate admittance fee will be charged.
Benjamin Franklin, third son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. and Johanna Gantt, of this place, died on the 9th instant, after a very short illness of diabetes aged 16 years and 15 days. He was a kind, good boy, and had in him elements that would have made him a useful man.

Mrs. Betsy Martin, a respectable lady who has resided in this vicinity for many years, is lying at the point of death having reached the ripe old age of 92 years.
Mr. John J. McCarty, an industrious young farmer of this place, is using a cotton planter of his own inventing, that he works admirably, but in view of the "legion" of patents for similar machines, he will not apply for protection.
Mr. Handy Harris, who resides near here in Center Township, and who is a most successful farmer, will shortly erect a neat and comely residence. LEX.
A SHOWER OF BUGS.—There have been in other places showers of frogs, fish and flesh, but it remained for Walke to come to the front with a shower of bugs. A gentleman living about three miles South of the city stepped to the door of his house about daybreak yesterday, and was startled to see the air filled with objects descending in showers, but softly and lightly, like snow flakes. He stooped down, and saw that they were bugs, of a dull gray color, and a little less in size than a grain of corn. They fell thickly, and as soon as they struck the ground began to crawl about in a very sprightly manner. They fell on the house, in the yard, everywhere, and it really looked like a plague of insects. A brisk breeze was blowing at the time from the East, and this seemed to have borne the insects with it. They continued to fall steadily but slowly from daybreak until the sun rose, and then the shower ceased. The poultry made a good use of the feast spread before them, and gathered in as many of the bugs as they could. The gentleman who observed the phenomenon says that he has known the same thing to occur before, but the shower did not continue quite so long a time. Within the space of a few yards there were hundreds perhaps thousands of the insects.—Raleigh Observer.
PETERSBURG, April 17.—The forest fires which have been raging in this vicinity for the past week have become uncontrollable. The flames and smoke are plainly visible here. Barns and stables in large numbers have been destroyed; in many instances farmers have lost all their crops. Horses, farming implements and a number of cabins have been burned, the occupants barely escaping with their lives. The destruction of cord wood and timber is immense. In Prince George County the fire has been very destructive, invading orchards and destroying hundreds of fruit trees. It is feared that unless a heavy and early rain occurs, the fire will destroy the railroad bridges and telegraph poles, thereby impeding travel and cutting off telegraphic communications.
NORFOLK, April 18.—Passenger report destructive fires along the line of the railroad from Lynchburg to Norfolk. Several dwellings have been burned in Appomattox County, and two houses at Nottaway Court House. Extensive fires are raging in Dismal Swamp, and have destroyed large amounts of timber, cut wood and lumber. Every effort is being made to prevent the flames from making headway. The weather is dry and windy, and trucking interests are suffering greatly for want of rain.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—In the Police Court this morning the prosecuting attorney asked for the commitment of Dennis Kearney. The latter was not present at the time, but in a few minutes appeared with his counsel who asked a delay to enable him to apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus. The Court denied the request as unusual and extraordinary. The commitment was then made out, and Kearney, evidently greatly depressed and chagrined, was taken below. In a few minutes he was removed to a hack and taken to the House of Correction, where, after going through the hands of a barber and donning the convict's garb he was placed in a cell. His counsel will apply for a writ of habeas corpus, but it is not expected to avail the prisoner anything.

The Chicago Tribune prints some pictures of the substance called oleomargarine butter, which, representing anything used for human food, are altogether the most hideous sights imaginable. The front elevation strongly resembles a vast menagerie, plentifully supplied with antediluvian monsters and mammoth aquariums while a cross section view presents a very faithful picture of a furniture and house-furnishing store, with a few pieces of agricultural and domestic labor saving machinery thrown in here and there for scenic effect. We commend the sketches to the members of Congress who went over to New York the other day to eat an oleomargarine dinner. If they can view them without a rising of the gorge, even at this late day, their stomachs will stand anything.

A glass of whiskey sells for a dime and is drunk in a minute. It fires the brain and deranges and weakens the physical system. On the same table lies a newspaper. It is covered with a half million of type; it brings intelligence from the four quarters of the globe, but the newspaper costs half the glass of grog; but it is none the less truer that there is a large number of people who think whiskey cheap and newspapers dear.

CHICAGO, April 18.—Gen. Grant and party arrived at Bloomington, Ill., last night. The General received a hearty and enthusiastic welcome. Justice John M. Scott, of the State Supreme Court, delivered an address, to which General Grant responded in the same vein as speech at Cairo, Ill., dwelling upon the good feeling apparent in his reception throughout the South.

A rich gold mine has been discovered in Nacoochee Valley, Georgia. A solid nugget was found on Monday, weighing 440 pennyweights without a flaw or gravel. Two hands picked up 900 pennyweights in one day. The mines are not for sale at any price.

Girls know only one quarter as much about counting as boys, because they have only one year in four in which they are allowed to practice.

The Laurens Railroad will be sold under order of Court, on the first day of August.

BIG BONES OF BIG BRAINS.—Mr. Wm. J. Davis, President of the Ohio Falls Geological Society, yesterday received from a brother in Charleston, S. C., a box of fossil bones from the "phosphate beds" on the Carolina coast. The box contained the teeth and bones of sharks and walruses, and a few vertebrae of the extinct American elephant, or Elephas Americanus. Among these is a huge cervical vertebra, from Battery River, near Beaufort S. C. It measures ten inches in length and twenty-nine and one half inches in circumference. As it is one of the twenty-four bones in the vertebral column, the animal was probably twenty-feet long, not including his head; or, including the head, twenty-five feet long, about sixteen feet high. The largest of modern Indian elephants is about twelve feet high and sixteen feet long. The weight of the animal who once twisted his head by means of this ponderous bone and others like it may be estimated at about 50,000 pounds; that is, if he was not in prime killing order, but merely had enough flesh to be comfortable. The bones of the immense deposited, geologists say, during the latter Champaign or early Tertiary epoch of the quaternary period.

In Mr. Davis's collection is also a tooth of the car-charodon megalodon, or fossil shark, five and a half inches long by four and three quarter inches broad. It is hard and heavy as iron, with the enamel still in perfect preservation. The guinea or white shark, is the modern representative of this genus, and attains to the length of thirty feet. This is the largest of modern sharks, has a tooth two and one quarter inches long by one and three quarter inches broad. If the original possessor of the fossil tooth referred to had a body of size proportionate to that of his tooth he must have exceeded one hundred in length, and have had a thickness through his shoulders of at least fifteen feet. The weight of the tooth is impossible to conjecture. These two bones—the elephant's vertebra and the shark's tooth—are probably the largest of the kind in existence.—Courier Journal.

BUCHU HAS LONG been used by the Hottentots in a variety of diseases. From these rude practitioners the remedy was borrowed by the resident English and Dutch physicians, by whose recommendation it was employed in Europe, and has since come into general use. Combined with Juniper and other desirable ingredients, as in the preparation of Rankin's Compound Fluid Extract of Buchu and Juniper it proves a most reliable remedy for Non-continent or Incontinence of Urine, Irritation, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Bladder and Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder, Gravel or Brick Dust Deposit, Milky Discharges and all diseases of Bladder or Kidneys and Dropsical Swelling in man, woman or child.
